Apprentice Field Support Technician

BT

Location: Truro + Nationwide

Salary: £315.75/week

Some of our larger and complex customers have very specific needs from our teams and that's what we're here to serve. That could be anything from provision or repair, hardware, software or infrastructure.

As a Field Support Technician, you will be working in the Field day-to-day and have direct exposure to our customers. Working on customer sites every day means you'll need to be prepared to travel around, but that's part of the fun! You get to see our technology being used in lots of different, innovative ways, and you get to be part of it. You will attend customer sites to help with installations where engineering support is required to set-up, install, and carry out non-complex and simple repairs.

This is an incredible opportunity for someone who is passionate about technology, but that doesn't mean you have to be super technical – we'll give you all the training you need to get you up and running to progress your career within the Field and beyond. Behaviour is more important to us, so if you have a proactive attitude and you love having great conversations, apply today!

As an Apprentice Field Support Technician you'll study for a Level 3 apprenticeship. Depending on where you're based will affect the exact apprenticeship you'll study for will vary:
In England, you'll follow Information Communications Technician Level 3

The role will be to provide purchase ledger and sales ledger support in the Finance Team and to learn about the Finance process at Eden.

In order to be successful, you will need to be motivated and committed to completing the 2 years. We don't need you to have lots of previous qualifications or experience within finance, we are looking for the right attitude and a willingness to learn and get stuck in! Our apprenticeships are open to anyone aged 16 and over. There is no upper age limit.

If you do not have your own transport available you should consider how you will travel to work, as Eden is in a rural location and public transport is not always available. A travel bursary is available for those who live further than 3 miles away from Eden.
