

THE REDRUTH SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

Issue 226 3rd November 2017

Sports Presentation Evening

Our Annual Sports Presentation Evening was held on Wednesday 18th October.

The guest speaker for the event was England cricketer and former Redruth School student, Liam Norwell.

Students received awards and accolades for sporting achievement and endeavour across the year groups with Victor Ludorum being awarded to Ben Mancini and Vitrix Ludorum awarded to Sophie Thompson (pictured below).

Craig Martin, Headteacher said, "It's wonderful to see our students at this awards ceremony. Sport is a major influence in the local community and it is so rewarding to see past and present students joining together to celebrate!"

Halloween Disco

140 Year 7s enjoyed the Halloween Disco before the half term break. Year 11 students ran the technical aspect of the evening with lights and sound. Caitlin Newman and Teone Burridge did theatrical make-up, (burns and cuts) and Mr Bartlett won the dance competition - his worm was particularly popular. Jai-Kaedon Charles and Grace Cooper won best fancy dress. It was a spooktacular night!

National Championships

Congratulations to Beth Edwards, Year 8, who took part in the National Baton Twirling Competition held in Paignton last weekend. Beth came second in the Dance Solo, 2nd in the duo and First in the Pom Pom Team event. Beth began baton twirling at the age of 6 and practises regularly as part of Trelawney Twirlers.

Academy Nathan Outlaw

Head of Design Technology, Mrs Lean attended an event to celebrate 5 years of Academy Nathan Outlaw, at Cornwall College. Two star Michelin Chef, Nathan Outlaw leads the academy. Students who wish to pursue a career in the hospitality/catering sector have a fantastic opportunity to learn from one of the leading lights in the industry.

Lord Lieutenant Sea Cadets

Former students, Bethany and Emily Yarde-Dent have been appointed as Lord Lieutenant Cadets for Sea Cadets. They will be assisting the Lord Lieutenant in his duties as the Queen's representative in Cornwall for the coming year. They were chosen from all the Sea Cadets in Cornwall to hold this honour and it is a first in the County that they have allowed 2 cadets from the same organisation to hold this Award.

Oxford 1st Class Degree

Congratulations to Gemma Woodbridge, former student, who has achieved a First Class Degree in History at Oxford University.
Well done Gemma!

Erasmus Conference

Delegates from Germany, Netherlands, Sicily and Luxembourg joined Redruth School to discuss the content of the new project for 16 - 18 years olds to consider. This is the third and final year of the Erasmus+ project and the focus for students will be Youth Criminality. Students from schools in Cornwall will take their ideas forward to schools in England and then further to other European countries, culminating in a presentation of possible solutions to a European audience. Presentations will take place in Luxembourg in Spring 2018.

